

Directions: Fill out the "Plot Diagram" as you read your book.

Plot Diagram

TEXT (READING): _____

Setting:

Characters:

Background Information:

CLIMAX

THE TURNING POINT IN THE TEXT. USUALLY A MAIN CHARACTER COMES FACE TO FACE WITH THE CONFLICT.

RISING ACTION
THE CONFLICT DEVELOPS & THE CHARACTER(S) TRIES TO SOLVE THE CONFLICT.

FALLING ACTION
THE EVENTS THAT FOLLOW THE CLIMAX IN ORDER TO LEAD THE READER TO THE RESOLUTION.

Explain how the conflict was resolved.

EXPOSITION

THE SETTING IS PRESENTED, AND WE ARE INTRODUCED TO THE CHARACTERS AND THE POTENTIAL PROBLEM.

INITIATING EVENT

MAJOR INCIDENT THAT STARTS A CHAIN OF EVENTS/MAJOR PROBLEM IS REVEALED

RESOLUTION OR DENOUEMENT

ALL LOOSE ENDS OF THE PLOT ARE TIED UP.

Plot Elements Review /10

#1 Protagonist: _____

List 4 character traits that describe the protagonist.

#2 Identify and explain 1 type of internal conflict (character vs. self) that a character in your story is facing. Support your answer with a quotation and page number from the text.

pg. # _____

#3 Identify and explain 1 type of external conflict that the protagonist encounters. Decide if it is character vs. society, nature, or character (antagonist). Support your answer with a quotation and page number from the text.

pg. # _____

Genre and Subgenre /5

Use the notes in your VIP section for support

Shade in the box with the subgenre of your book.

HISTORICAL	REALISTIC	DYSTOPIAN/ APOCALYPTIC
MYSTERY	FANTASY	SCIENCE FICTION

Explain how you know this is the subgenre using evidence (quotation/explanation) from the text. You must include a page number.

page # _____

Point of View /5

Identify the point of view (1st, 2nd, or 3rd) used in your text. Support your choice with 2 lines of textual evidence and page numbers.

The point of view or perspective of my book _____ is _____ person.

Textual evidence:

#1 _____
pg. # _____

#2 _____
pg. # _____

CHOICE BOARD: / 30

Directions: Choose 1 option from each box to complete based on your book. Any of these options may be completed on the computer. Use your notes to complete these activities. Put an X in 1 box per section.

REVIEW

DIY Glossary:

Create a glossary (mini-dictionary) based on unknown, interesting, or difficult to pronounce words. Define each word and include the part of speech.

Minimum of 10 words.

True/False Questions:

Create 5-6 true/false reading comprehension questions based on your book.

Include an answer key with page numbers.

WRITE

Literary Analysis:

Write a 3 paragraph literary analysis based on 1 of the following prompts.

option #1: Based on what you have read so far, has your interest been piqued or heightened about an event in your book? If so, why? What will you do to learn more about the topic in the future?

option #2: Pretend you are one of the characters in your text. Write a diary entry that accurately describes the time period, the situation you are in, the challenges you have faced, and anything else that would be interesting to the reader.

Research Paper:

Write a 3 paragraph research paper about the author of your book.

Make sure you use credible sources when doing your research.

Include a "bibliography" or the website you used for your research.

CREATE

Alternate Book Cover

Design and illustrate an alternate book cover for your book. You must include colors! This can be done on a computer or hand-drawn.

Protagonist Playlist

Create a 5-7 song playlist that you think the protagonist if your book would listen to.

Include the genre and artist of each song.